

Opinion Writing

The best pet is ...

Below the title, there are three vertical columns. The first column contains a drawing of a dog. The second column contains a drawing of a cat. The third column contains a circle with a question mark and the text 'Something else'.

Whole class survey.
Students will add their names to the bottom of this chart.

Name: _____ The best pet is ...

A large dashed-line box for writing. Below it are several horizontal lines for additional writing.

Students put forth their point of view and provide evidence for their opinion.

Name: _____ The best pet is ...

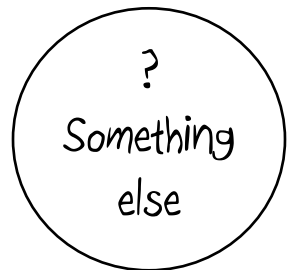

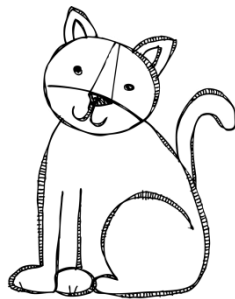

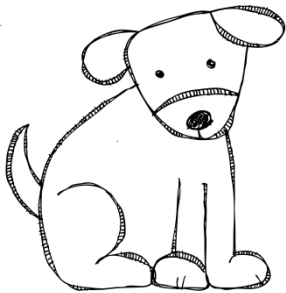

1. Use tally marks to show how many.

2. Create a graph.

Below the instructions, there are three boxes for tally marks, each with a drawing of a dog, a cat, and a circle with a question mark. Below these is a grid for a bar graph with 3 columns and 5 rows. At the bottom of the grid are small drawings of a dog, a cat, and a question mark.

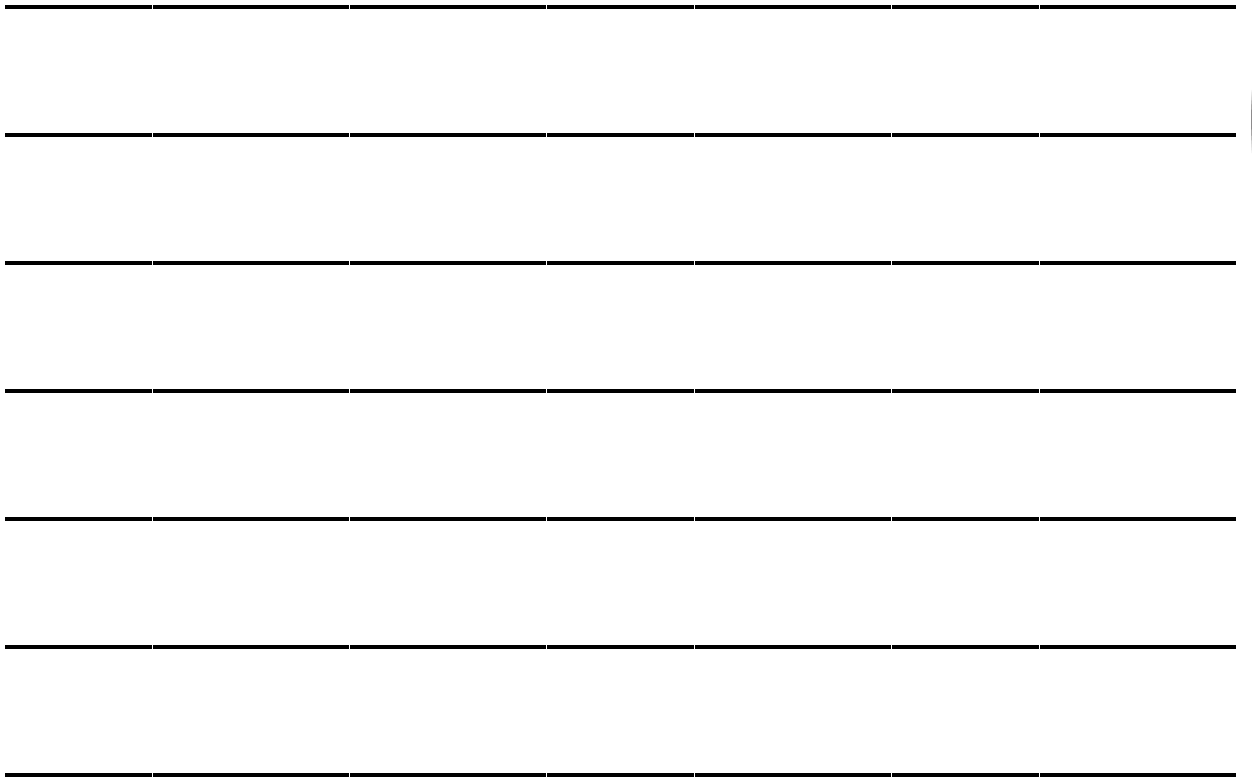

Students interpret the data. This could be done at different time as not confuse the purpose of their writing.

The best pet is . . .

Name: _____

The best pet is...

A large, empty rectangular area with rounded corners, outlined with a thick dashed line. This area is intended for a child to draw a picture of their favorite pet.A series of ten horizontal solid lines spaced evenly down the page, providing a designated area for the child to write their response to the question.

Name: _____

The best pet is...

1. Use tally marks to show how many.

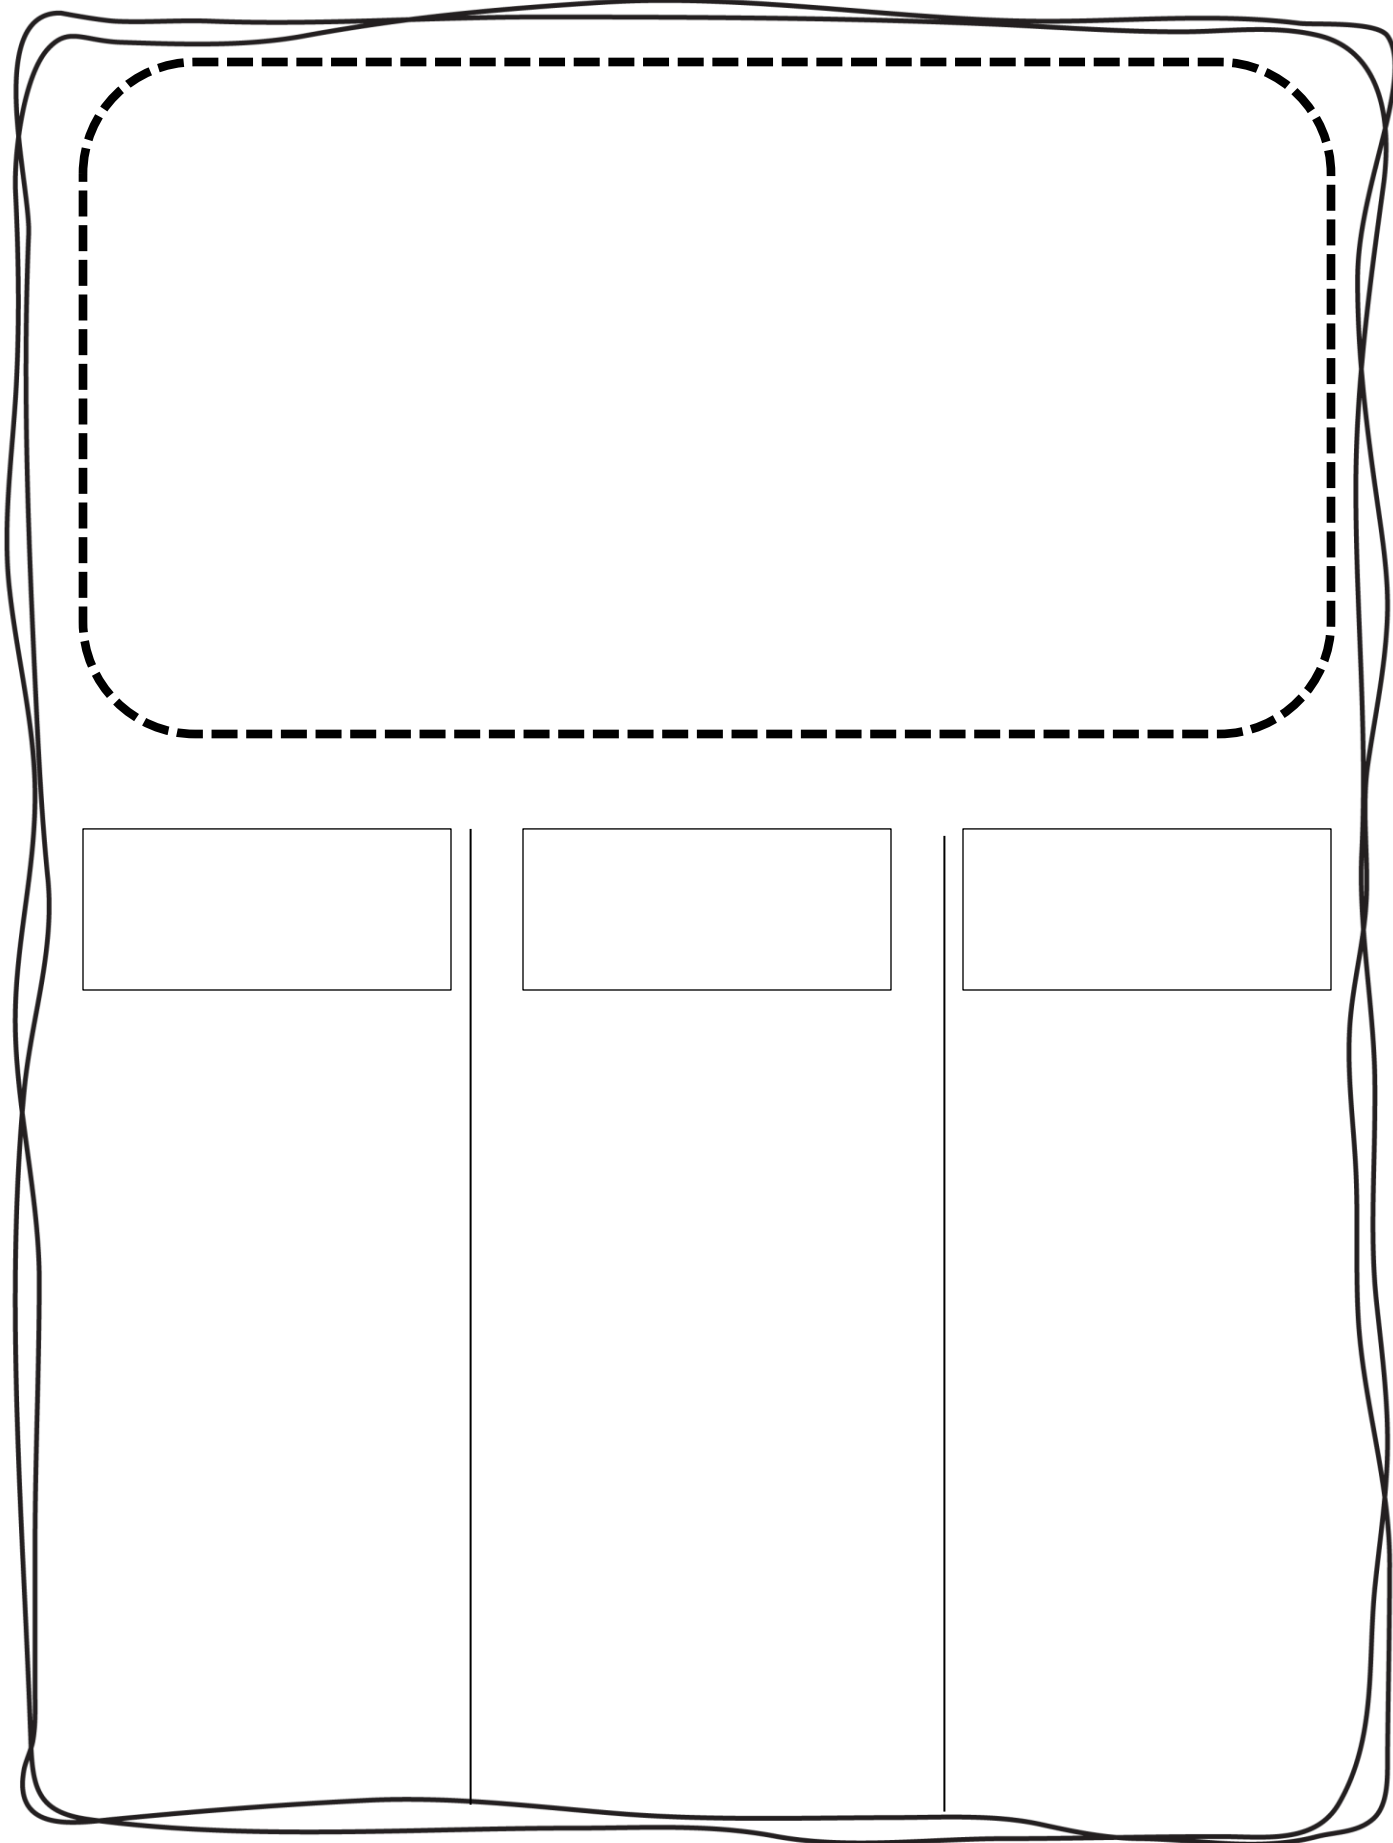

?

Something else

2.
Create a graph.

		?

Name: _____