

Opinion Writing Feedback Form

There is not just one writing teacher in the classroom. We need to become writing teachers for ourselves and others. Writers can listen to each other talk and ask open-ended questions. Your job is to get others to talk about their writing. Ask questions that are not yes/no questions, but questions that are open ended such as: Why do you feel this way? Why is this point important to you? What is an example of the point you are trying to make?
